1. A special Control Section has been set up for additional political control of the contents of the Tägliche Rundschau. Though the political line is established by the editor-in-chief, Sokolov, the Control Section, which is administratively subordinated to the office of the managing editor, Kubaridova, has the function of screening the paper for minor deviation and mistakes before it goes to press.
2. The personnel of the Control Section are as follows:
- Gazalov (fnu); age 25 or 27; small, slender young man with smooth brown hair; "intellectual type"; speaks some German.
 - Kacheva (fnu); young woman; came to the paper in February 1954. Age 22; 1.70 meters tall; single.
 - Turchinski (fnu); age 27 or 28; height 1.72 meters; slim; wears eye-glasses; curly hair; looks "intelligent"; speaks German well.
3. The Economic Section (Wirtschafts-Abteilung) has been split into two independent sections: Economics (Wirtschaft) and Agriculture (Landwirtschaft). Chief of the Economic Section is still Rachkov; the Agricultural Section has a new editor, name unknown, a small (1.66 meters) stout individual, approximately 40 years old.
4. The following Soviet personnel have been identified by name:
- Kutilova (fnu); librarian.
 - Malayev (fnu); Soviet chief of the garage in Wisbyer Strasse and Prenzlauer Allee.
